Dear John,

May I thank you and everyone at Bookers for the marvellous lunch you gave us on Friday. Jill always claimed that your powers of organization were terrific and I can only endorse that you were superb hosts. It seems to have been very successful, as, very much due to you, I gather they all were, but perhaps you can tell that more than I!

Thank you, also, for the extreme kindness, understanding and sympathy you showed me in your offices afterwards. Due, again, to all of you, I was made to feel much less like a usurper and it was a marvellous opportunity for you to put me clear on certain things.

I will be in touch with you again very soon when I have been able to sort out the meeting.

Yours ever,

Marilyn Edwards
